JOINT PRIMARY ELECTION
(REPUBLICAN & DEMOCRAT)

VOTERS GUIDE

MARCH 1, 2022

EARLY VOTING
FEBRUARY 14 - 25

REPUBLICAN PARTY

John Francesco

• First elected to Congress in 2018, Gooden also served in the Texas House of Representatives for four years. He graduated with a B.A. and a B.B.A. The University of Texas at Austin.

• His top campaign issues include banning sanctuary cities to cut down on illegal immigration, healthcare, 2nd Amendment, pro-life, veterans, education, taxes and spending, national debt, and national security.

UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE, DISTRICT 6

Jake Ellzev

• Ellzey was first elected to Congress in 2021. He previously served in the Texas House of Representatives as well as the Commissioner of the Texas Veterans Commission. He earned a degree from the U.S. Naval Academy and served in the Navy for 20 years, receiving 2 Bronze Stars and eight Air Medals during his service.

• His top political priorities include public education, deregulation for businesses, protecting state property against federal projects, border protection, and second amendment and right-to-life rights.

James Buford

• Buford has worked as a Regional Maintenance Supervisor for over 20 years; owner of a business that builds and remodels homes for 10 years; and has been a pastor for over 30 years.

• Main campaign issues include healthcare, jobs, and the trade industry; Positioned against critical race theory, for border protection, and fighting against vaccine and mask mandates.

Bill Payne
• No Information Available

UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE, DISTRICT 24

Beth Van Duyne

• First elected in 2020, Van Duyne earned a B.A. in city/regional planning and government and law from Cornell University. She previously served as the Mayor of Irving from 2011 – 2017 and as a Regional Administrator with the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

• Her top political priorities include deportation of unauthorized immigrants, opposing police budget cuts, job creation, and opposing the Affordable Care Act in favor of health savings accounts and reduced healthcare regulations.

Nate Weymouth
• No Information Available

UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE, DISTRICT 30

Dakinya "Kinya" Jefferson

• Jefferson is a security guard and self-employed.

• Her top campaign issues include bipartisanship, national debt, inflation, immigration, healthcare and global warming.

James Rogers

• Rogers is a recruiter for an international Christian non-profit. He received his doctorate from Baylor University and is a former educator working primarily in high-needs schools.

• His top campaign issues include civil liberties, foreign policy, cryptocurrency, healthcare, the economy, and immigration.

Lizabeth Diaz

• Diaz was born in South Oak Cliff and is a life-long Texan. Her parents immigrated from Mexico to Dallas to start raising their family. She graduated with a bachelor's degree in political science and psychology from Dallas Baptist University.

• Her top campaign issues include education, medical freedom, public safety, and religious freedom.

Kelvin Goodwin-Castillo

• Goodwin-Castillo is a former military police officer, federal agent, and CEO of a criminal investigations firm. He served in the army for 10 years and later received a bachelor's degree in criminal justice.

• His top campaign issues include pay gaps, crime, housing, healthcare, immigration, inflation, and education.

Angeigh J. Roc'ellerpitts

• Roc'ellerpitts believes abortion providers like Planned Parenthood, should not receive funds from federal, state, or local governments.

Antonio Swad

• Swad is an entrepreneur and founder and former chief executive of Pizza Patron and Wingstop.

• His top campaign issues include the economy, securing the border, police funding, second amendment, energy, debt, and education.

Brad Namdar

• Namdar is a small business owner born in Dallas County. He attended Texas Tech University and is a former teacher.

• His top campaign issues include fiscal conservatism, energy, immigration, critical race theory, pro-life, and the second amendment.

Nathan Davis

• With over fifteen years' experience in the investment and capital markets industry, he is currently a small business owner providing financial consulting services to small and medium-sized businesses.

• Campaign issues include big tech and political censorship, vaccine passports, mask and vaccine mandates, unfair trade, taxes, labor, nation-wide school freedom, parents' rights, second amendment for all, American workers first, and securing the voting booth.

Ejike Okpa

• Okpa is self-employed working in the commercial real estate sector. He has been appointed to multiple positions within the state and federal government.

• His top campaign issues include immigration, COVID-19, reducing taxes, and cutting inflation.

Darrell Day
- No Information Available

Justin Webb
- No Information Available

UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE, DISTRICT 33

Robert Mac Glafin

• Mac Glaflin works in project management and sales in the landscaping industry. He previously served in the Navy and attended the Officer Candidacy School in Rhode Island.

• His top campaign issues include education, policing and military, immigration, energy independence, and 1st amendment rights.

Patrick David Gillespie
- No Information Available

GOVERNOR

Chad Prather

• Prather is a political commentator that graduated from Columbia International University.

• His top campaign issues include elections, agriculture, trafficking, right to life, energy, border security, education, and the economy.

Paul Belew

• Belew is a criminal defense attorney with over 25 years of experience.

• His top campaign issues include education, healthcare, energy, agriculture, THC, and gambling.

Danny Harrison

• Harrison is a businessman based in North Texas.

• His top campaign issues include small business, border security, property rights and public beaches.

GOVERNOR

Allen B. West

• West is a 22-year combat veteran, former Congressman representing Florida, and the former chairman of the Texas State Republican Party. He has a bachelor's degree from the University of Tennessee, and master's degrees from Kansas State University and US Army Command and General Staff Officers College.

• His top campaign issues include rule of law, border security, property taxes, energy, education, election integrity, and gun rights.

Greg Abbott

• Abbott was first elected as governor in 2014. He previously served for six years as a justice on the Texas Supreme Court and for 13 years as Texas Attorney General. He received a B.B.A. from UT Austin and his law degree from Vanderbilt University.

• His top campaign issues include law and order, healthcare, pro-life, second amendment rights, election integrity, property tax relief, energy, and a balanced state budget.

Don Huffines

• Huffines is a business owner and real-estate developer that also served as a state senator from Dallas for four years. He graduated with a B.B.A. from UT Austin.

• His top campaign issues include border security, election integrity, property taxes, critical race theory, social media censorship, the power grid, term limits, and transportation.

Rick Perry
- No Information Available

Kandy Kaye Horn
- No Information Available

Lieutenant Governor

Trayce Bradford

• Bradford is a grassroots activist that was president of Texas Eagle Forum. She received a bachelor's degree from Texas A&M University.

• Her top campaign issues include religious liberty, anti-taxpayer funded lobbying, human trafficking, pro-life, election integrity, and energy.

Daniel Miller

• Miller is a tech consultant and president of the Texas Nationalist Movement.

• His top campaign issues include Texas secession, property taxes, border security, election integrity, energy, pro-life, and reducing executive power.

Lieutenant Governor

Zack Vance

• Vance is a former Marine and Purple Heart recipient and recently worked in cable news. He is a graduate of UNT.

• His top campaign issues include property taxes, education, housing, public safety, energy, and healthcare.

Todd M. Bullis

• Bullis has worked as in a software development company and is currently involved in home school networks. He believes that the state government has separated too much away from God.

• His top campaign issues include pro-life, election integrity, COVID-19, and eliminating public education.

Dan Patrick

• Patrick was first elected as Lt. Gov. in 2014. He previously served as a state senator and was a talk radio host. He has a B.A. in English from the University of Maryland Baltimore County.

• His top campaign issues include pro-life issues, border security, election integrity, and school choice.

Aaron Sorrells

• Sorrells is a small business owner from Lubbock, TX.

• His top campaign issues include individual rights, property taxes, border security, election integrity, education, and term limits.

Attorney General

Eva Guzman

• Guzman was a justice on the Texas Supreme Court from 2009 – 2021. She received her bachelor's degree from University of Houston and her law degree from South Texas College of Law

• Her top campaign issues include enhancing quality of government, standing up for families and children, veterans, law enforcement, and election integrity.

Louie Gohmert

• Gohmert is a Congressman from East Texas serving since 2005. He received his bachelor's degree from Texas A&M and his law degree from Baylor University.

• His top campaign issues include balanced budgeting, border security, ending the death tax, and overturning the Affordable Care Act.

Ken Paxton

• Paxton was first elected in 2015 as Attorney General. He previously served 10 years as a state representative and two years as a state senator. He received his bachelor's and graduate degree from Baylor University and his law degree from the University of Virginia School of Law.

• His top campaign issues include preserving the constitution, border security, pro-life, second amendment, voter ID, and law enforcement.

George P. Bush

• Bush was first elected as General Land Commissioner in 2015. He is a Navy veteran and a former teacher. He received his bachelor's degree from Rice University and his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law.

• His top campaign issues include border security, government accountability, human trafficking, and law enforcement.

Comptroller of Public Accounts

Glen Hegar

• Hegar was first elected as Comptroller in 2015. He previously served as a state representative for four years and as a state senator for eight years. He graduated with his bachelor's degree from Texas A&M University and his graduate and law degrees from St. Mary's University School of Law.

• His top campaign issues include tax reform, balanced budgeting, accountability, transparency, agriculture, the military, and religious liberty.

Mark V. Goloby

• Goloby believes that many special interests including corporations and governments have lobbyists and that the Comptroller should be a lobbyist for the Texas taxpayer.

• His top campaign issues include accountability, transparency, automatic forensic audits, and Ch. 313 reform.

Commissioner of the General Land Office

Ben Armenta

• Armenta is a business owner who graduated from Texas A&M University with a degree in Education and the University of Houston – Downtown.

• Campaign issues include preserving the history of the Alamo, banning Critical Race Theory from schools, using his healthcare industry experience to ensure the veterans receive care and managing the disasters.

Weston Martinez

• Martinez received a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Wayland Baptist University and has previously served as a statewide Real Estate Commissioner, appointed by former Governor Rick Perry.

• Campaign issues include save the Alamo, build the wall, protect elections, manage investments to provide benefits for Texas veterans, and secure the future of children's education.

Tim Westley

• Working as a public-school teacher, a pastor, a mail carrier, a professor, and an education services specialist, Tim Westly is a graduate of Wayland Baptist University, where he earned his bachelor's and master's degree in Christian Ministry.

• Tim Westly is also a published author, speaker, trainer, and presenter; he has spoken to and trained personnel at Universities, Corporate Arenas, K-12 Schools, Political Arenas, Churches, and more.

Dawn Buckingham

• Buckingham who graduated with a B.S. from the University of Texas at Austin and an M.D. from the University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston. She is also the current state senator for district 24 in Central Texas.

• Her top campaign issues include pro-life, border security, and election integrity.

Commissioner of the General Land Office

Victor Avila

• A retired Supervisory Special Agent with the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), Homeland Security Investigations (HSI), under the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS), and a former United States Probation Officer for the U.S. Courts and District Parole Officer for the Texas Department of Criminal Justice, Victor Avila received his Bachelor of Science Degree in Criminal Justice from the University of Texas at El Paso.

• Avila's campaign issues include securing the borders, defunding Critical Race Theory, making America energy independent, protecting the Alamo, defending constitutional carry, honoring Veterans, securing elections, and hurricane recovery.

Jon Spiers

• A surgeon, attorney, Veteran, and entrepreneur; Dr. Jon Spiers graduated from Duke University and received a medical degree from the University of Tennessee.

• Campaign issues include closing the border to illegal entry, pro-second Amendment, pro-life, education for all Texas children, pro-Alamo and Texas history, pro-Israel, fixing disaster recovery and support preparedness, pro-coastal area, pro-farmers and ranchers, and pro-resources to fuel Texas & America.

Don W. Minton

• Paxton was first elected in 2015 as Attorney General. He previously served 10 years as a state representative and 2 years as a state senator. He received his bachelor's and graduate degree from Baylor University and his law degree from the University of Virginia School of Law.

• His top campaign issues include preserving the constitution, border security, pro-life, 2nd amendment, voter ID, and law enforcement.

Rufus Lopez

• No Information Available

Commissioner of Agriculture

Sid Miller

• Miller was first elected as Agriculture Commissioner in 2014. He previously served for 10 years as a state representative and is a farmer and rancher. He received his B.S. in vocational ag education from Tarleton State University.

• His top campaign issues are guns, pro-life, property taxes, and faith.

Carey A Counsil

• Counsil is a rancher, Air Force veteran, professor, and businessman who graduated from Texas A&M University.

• His top campaign issues include protecting farmland, securing the border, priority marketing of Texas commodities, water rights, and inflationary spending.

James White

• White is currently serving as a State Representative for East Texas where he has served for 11 years. He is an Army veteran and educator, graduating with both a bachelor's and master's degree from Prairie View A&M University.

• He is A-rated by the NRA and by pro-life groups and says that he wants to ensure that Texas continues to lead the nation in providing food, fiber and fuel.

Railroad Commissioner

Wayne Christian

• Serves as current Railroad Commissioner since 2017 and is seeking reelection; Earned a BBA in General Business from Stephen F. Austin University.

• He Has previously served in the Texas House of Representatives, and as President of the Texas Conservative Coalition; Holds political stances against climate change policies, and for small government, business regulations, and national security.

Sarah Stogner

• She is Founder & Attorney at Stogner Legal which provides legal counsel to energy entities in Texas, Louisiana, and Colorado; Earned a BA at Louisiana State University, and her JD from the Louisiana State University, Paul M. Hebert Law Center.

• Her top priorities include providing more clean and renewable energy sources for Texas, preventing federal regulations on Texas energy, and establishing State standards to help handle environmental, social, and governance issues in the energy industry.

Tom Slocum Jr.

•Fourth-generation Oil and Gas Consultant; Earned a Bachelor's degree from Texas A&M University.

• His priorities include fiscal conservatism and less federal intervention when it comes to reforms and regulation changes, border security, second amendment rights, and pro-life.

Railroad Commissioner

Dawayne Tipton

• Project Manager and Offshore Risk Engineer for Aereon; Previously worked as a customer support manager in the oil and gas industry, and in several drilling and engineering operations globally; Earned a BS in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Central Arkansas.

• His priorities include job security in the oil and gas industry, maximizing the benefits of natural resources to boost the State economy, fiscal conservancy, and limited government.

Marvin "Sarge" Summers

• Currently is the Founder and President of Oilfield Connections International and has worked in the oil and gas industry for the past 29 years; served in the U.S. Army for 21 years; Attended Midland College & Vincennes University in business, sales, marketing, and IT courses.

• His priorities include worker safety in the oil and gas industry, a clean environment, energy independence for Texas, and citizens' rights.

Justice, Supreme Court, Place 3
Debra Lehrmann

Justice, Supreme Court, Place 5
Rebeca Huddle

Justice, Supreme Court, Place 9
David J. Schenck (Incumbent)
• Schneck has served as a judge on the Texas 5th District Court of Appeals for seven years and was a practicing private attorney. He received his bachelor's degree from State University of New York, Albany, and his law degree from Baylor University.

• He describes himself as a strict, constitutional constructionist that stands up against cronyism and "pay to play" politics.

Evan Young

• Young was appointed Justice of the Texas Supreme Court Place 9 in November of last year to fill a departure. He received his bachelor's degree from Oxford University and his law degree from Yale University.

• He clerked for Supreme Court Justice Antonin Scalia and served as Counsel to the Attorney General at the Department of Justice.

Judge, Court of Criminal Appeals, Place 2
Mary Lou Keel

Judge, Court of Criminal Appeals, Place 5
Scott Walker (incumbent)
• Walker was first elected as judge to the Court of Criminal Appeals in 2016. He received his bachelor's degree from Dallas Baptist University and his law degree from Baylor University.

• Prior to his election, Judge Walker litigated over 40 jury trials and over 100 appeals specializing in veterans' issues.

Clint Morgan
• Morgan is an Assistant District Attorney with Harris County and previously clerked for the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals. He received his bachelor's degree from Claremont College and his law degree from the University of Texas School of Law.

• He has stated that his philosophy regarding the law is to treat every case without preconceptions of what the result should be, to read the law in its plain terms without imposing his personal policy preferences on it, and to describe the law as simply and succinctly as possible.

Judge, Court of Criminal Appeals, Place 6
Jesse F. McClure, III

State Board of Education District 9
Keven M. Ellis (incumbent)
• Ellis has served as Chairman of the SBOE since September 2019. He was elected to office in November 2016 and represents 21 Northeast Texas counties. Prior to SBOE, he served on the Lufkin ISD Board of Trustees, serving as board president in 2015-16.

• Ellis attended Western Washington University and received a Doctor of Chiropractic degree from the Texas Chiropractic College. Ellis is owner of Ellis Chiropractic in Lufkin.

State Board of Education District 11
DC Caldwell
• Running for SBOE in both the democrat and republican primaries.

• DC Caldwell earned a B.S. in Civil Engineering with a minor in Mathematics from Texas A&M University in 2008. Caldwell obtained a JD from Texas Southern University's Thurgood Marshall School of Law in 2019.

Joshua Tarbay
• Tenured Professor at Tarrant County College NW Campus. Taught at Manuel Jara Elementary School, Seminary Hills Park Elementary (FWISD), and Weatherford College. Six years' experience on the Weatherford School Board, as member and Vice-President.

Patricia "Pat" Hardy
• A lifelong educator, elected to serve District 11 SBOE in November 2002. During her tenure, Hardy has served on all three of the board's committees.

• Hardy taught high school world history and world geography for 30 years at Castleberry high school in Fort Worth and retired in 2017.

Rebecca Gracia

State Board of Education District 12
Pam Little (incumbent)
• Little was first elected to the State Board of Education in 2018. She was raised in Bryan-College Station and graduated from University of Houston with a bachelor's degree in Social Studies. She owns a fencing business in DFW.

• Priorities include raising reading/math scores, adding new career and technology courses to Texas schools, and revising standardized tests.

State Board of Education District 13

Ajua Mason
• Mason is a small business owner and cosmetologist by trade.
• Her top campaign issues include reducing standardized testing, raising reading scores, parental rights, and advancing career & technical education.

Natalie Kohn
• Kohn is a former teacher at both Dallas ISD and Fort Bend ISD. She is a graduate of UNT with a Master's in Education Leadership.

Kathryn Monette

A. Denise Russell

State Board of Education District 14

Evelyn Brooks
• Brooks has worked in education for over 23 years, including elementary education, homeschooling, summer STEM program, and youth development facilitator.

• Her top campaign issues include parental rights, common core, and school choice.

Sue Melton-Malone
• Melton-Malone was first elected to the State Board of Education in 2012. Prior to her election, she was an educator for 36 years.

• Her top campaign issues include reducing the number of standardized tests, textbook selection, and the permanent school fund.

State Senator, District 2 District Race

Bob Hall (incumbent)
• A Captain, US Air Force, and a retired business owner he is also a graduate of The Citadel with a degree in Electrical Engineering.
• Campaign issues include protection of religious liberty and First Amendment rights, limited government, fiscal responsibility, rule of law, and personal responsibility.

State Senator, District 12 District Race

Tan Parker
• A Texas businessman and graduate of the University of Dallas and the London School of Economics.

• As State Representative for House District 63 he has fought against wasteful spending, kept taxes low, protected life and liberty, advanced public safety and removed government regulatory burdens unleashing Texan innovation and leadership.

Chris Russell
• A Texas businessman and entrepreneur

State Senator, District 16 District Race
Brandon Copeland
• An engineer and businessman by trade running for Texas Senate. He received a B.S. in Industrial Distribution from the Texas A&M School of Engineering.

State Representative, District 102 District Race
Susan Fischer

State Representative District 105 District Race
Allan E. Meagher
• Serving his third term as a member of the City of Irving City Council, At-Large District 2.

• Resident of the City of Irving for over 50 years, he has served on multiple boards and commissions, participated in community activities, and is a strong supporter of local businesses.

Gerson Hernandez
• Serving as the Founder and Director of Agape Connect, an Irving-based non-profit organization, and Executive Director and Community Outreach Pastor at Templo Christian Agape.
• He is committed to promoting strong family values and seeing the community prosper.

State Representative District 108 District Race
Morgan Meyer (incumbent)
• A partner at Wick Phillips law firm, he received an undergraduate degree from Southern Methodist University and his law degree from Washington and Lee School of Law.

• Serving his fourth term as a State Representative, Morgan serves as Chair of the House Ways and Means Committee and as a member of the Local & Consent Calendars Committee. As Chairman of this committee, his focus was to promote economic recovery and smart, innovative approaches to tax reform and relief while making sure education and public safety were fully funded.

State Representative District 111 District Race
Benjamin Yrigollen

State Representative District 112 District Race
Angie Chen Button (incumbent)
• A graduate of UT Dallas with a Master of Science in Management and Administrative Sciences degree, she worked for Texas Instruments for 35 years first as an auditor and then later selling American-made products overseas.

• Her Campaign issues include safer and stronger schools, improving healthcare access, cutting red tape on the economy, reducing tax burden, and fighting human trafficking and exploitation.

State Representative District 114 District Race
Mark Hajdu
• The CEO and President of Triumph Commercial Real Estate. He is a graduate of Southern Methodist University.

State Representative District 115 District Race
Melisa Denis
• Serves as the lead tax partner in charge of the Global Mobility Services (GMS) practice in Dallas with more than 29 years of business experience providing international and human resource tax consulting assistance to consumer markets and retail clients. She currently serves as a partner in charge of Global Mobility Services in Dallas and is the Consumer and Industrial Area leader for Dallas, Oklahoma, and Arkansas.

Justice, 5th Court of Appeals District, Place 4
Emily A. Miskel

Justice, 5th Court of Appeals District, Place 7
Kristina Williams

District Judge, 44th Judicial District
Ashley Wysocki

District Judge, 303rd Judicial District
Rhonda Hunter

Criminal District Attorney
Faith Johnson

County Judge
Lauren Davis
• Davis is a small business owner and received a degree in Sociology from UNT.
• Her top campaign issues include healthcare, COVID-19, and mask mandates

Edwin Flores
• A scientist and lawyer by trade. Edwin earned a B.S. in Microbiology from The University of Texas, a Ph.D. in Molecular Immunobiology from Washington University, and a J.D. from The University of Texas School of Law.

• A managing partner and founder of Chalker Flores LLP, an intellectual property law firm; currently serves as the 1st Vice President on the Dallas School Board of Trustees, District 1.

Judge, County Court at Law No. 4
Jessica Lewis
• An attorney with Ross & Smith, PC, a firm that focuses primarily on the representation of debtors, creditors, and other purchasers in corporate reorganizations and other bankruptcy and insolvency-related matters.

• As an attorney, she spent two years working for a Dallas-based non-profit focused on bettering Dallas communities by representing residents of high-crime neighborhoods against owners of problem properties in civil litigation and probate-related matters.

Judge, County Court at Law No. 5
Jordan Montgomery Lewis
• An attorney who graduated with an undergraduate degree from Louisiana State University, an MBA from Southeastern Louisiana University, and a J.D. from Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law.

County Treasurer – Dallas
Shelly Akerly

County Commissioner Precinct 2 County Race – Dallas
J.J. Koch (incumbent)
• A graduate of Duke University and Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law.

• Prior to his election as Dallas County Commissioner, he worked as an attorney with William M. Woodall, P.C., where he worked in the field of legal technology.

Justice of the Peace Precinct 2, Place 1
Stephen W. Stanley
• Stanley is a realtor by trade, and he previously served as a member of the Garland City Council, representing District 3 from 2013 to 2017.

Billy Gallion

Justice of the Peace Precinct 2, Place 2
Deborah "Debby" Bobbitt
• Currently a Field Representative for the U.S. Census. Former city councilwoman in Rowlett.

Justice of the Peace Precinct 3, Place 1
Gregg Shalan

Justice of the Peace Precinct 3, Place 2
Steve Seider (incumbent)
• A graduate from the University of Texas at Arlington with a bachelor's degree in Business Administration and the University of Houston obtaining a J.D.

Justice of the Peace Precinct 4, Place 1
Nicole Thibault Frette

County Constable Precinct 2
Vince Griffin
• A resident of Mesquite and Garland, his law enforcement career began as a Dallas Police Explorer at the age of 14. At the age of 19, he joined the Dallas County Sheriff's Department and later advanced to the Dallas County Constable's Office as a Deputy.

• During his time in the Constable's Office, he was promoted to the ranks of Corporal, Sergeant, and later achieved the rank of Chief Deputy of the Dallas County Constable's Office for Precinct 2.

County Constable Precinct 3
Ben Adamcik (incumbent)
• Elected as Constable in 2006 by the Dallas County Precinct 3 residents. Before he was elected, he was a Deputy Constable since 1998.

• He has over 40 years of combined Military service and Law Enforcement experience and continues to serve Dallas County and Precinct 3 residents with dedicated service and fiscally responsible management.

County Constable Precinct 4
Deputy Bryan Woodard

County Constable Precinct 5
Gerald W. (Jerry) Jones

Country Chair
Jennifer Stoddard Hajdu

DEMOCRATIC PARTY

UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE, DISTRICT 5

Tartisha Hill

• Former Balch Springs City Councilwoman who supports tuition-free public colleges and universities, passing the Green New Deal, healthcare, and taking big money out of politics

• Received an undergraduate degree from Paul Quinn College

Kathleen Cordelia Bailey

• Bailey, an intelligence and national security affairs expert and the first social scientist hired at Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory to head a group to analyze foreign weapons of mass destruction programs and capabilities; served in high level positions in three US Departments; currently a consultant on national security affairs in Dallas

• Her platform includes healthcare, economics, agriculture, justice reform, national security, the environment, gender equality and gun control; native of Dallas; earned a PhD in Political Science from University of Illinois

UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE, DISTRICT 24

Kathy Fragnoli

• A professional mediator and attorney, Fragnoli's agenda for Texas includes the environment, LGBTQ+ Rights, Big Pharma and Addiction, Social Security, Veterans issues and mental health services

• Born in Wilmington, Delaware and grew up in Vermont; earned an undergraduate degree and law degree from Boston College and Gonzaga University; was chosen by her peers as one of the best lawyers in Dallas in the field of dispute resolution

Derrick T Gay

• A Marine Corps and Iraq War Veteran and attorney; the issues Gay is committed to include Voting Rights, the Economy, Fighting for Working Families, Healthcare, Protecting Seniors and Choice, Education, the Environment, immigration and veterans

• Earned a law degree and business degree from Northwestern University; believes in defending the democracy, investing in a strong economy and good paying jobs

Jan McDowell

• Currently a CPA, the issues McDowell will take on includes Fair Taxes, the Environment, Social Security, Immigration, Healthcare, Abortion, Women's Rights, Equality for All and Gun Sense

• Grew up in Richardson; a graduate of Texas Tech University and the University of Texas at Dallas

Arthur Dixon

• Attended American University in Washington D.C.

• Campaign Issues include universal basic Income a $15 Minimum Wage, Free Healthcare, Free Community College, Green New Deal and the legalization of Marijuana

Jessica Mason

• Mason grew up in Hamilton Park and is a Navy Veteran. She currents works as an Affordable Housing Coordinator.

• Top Campaign Issues: A. Universal Healthcare; B. Criminal Justice reform; C. Community Reinvestment in Public Education, After School Programs and Community Centers; D. Green Jobs; E. Affordable Housing; F. Unions for All

Vonceil Hill

• Vonciel Hill earned an undergraduate degree from Rice University, a Masters of Library Science from Atlanta University, a Masters of Arts from Rice University, a Masters of Divinity from Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University Perkins School of Theology and law degree from University of Texas at Austin School of Law

• Top Campaign Issues include living wages and equitable contracting, Excellent education at every level, Equal access to quality Health Care

Jasmine Crockett

• St. Louis native Jasmine Crockett is a graduate of Rhodes College and earned a law degree from the University of Houston School of Law; the Civil Rights and Criminal Defense Attorney is currently Texas State Representative from District 100

• Top Campaign Issues include Voting Rights, Healthcare, Workers Rights, Abortion Rights and Environmental Justice

Barbara Mallory Caraway

• Barbara Mallory Caraway is currently a small business owner, but she has served as a Texas State Representative for seven years and Dallas City Councilwoman for eight years; she is a graduate of Texas Southern University

• Her priority campaign issues include providing Veterans with proper resources; Creating trust between Law Enforcement and the Community and Quality Affordable Healthcare

Keisha Lankford

• Keisha Lankford is currently the Co-Director and Founder of Lankford Avenue and the Director of The Avenue Proactive Resources Center, PhD; a Dallas native who was born and raised in District 30; a graduate from Texas A&M Commerce.

• Top Campaign Issues include Social Justice & Police Reform, Voting Rights Act, Economic Development, Mental & Emotional Health, Educational Reform and Gun & Family Violence

Roy Williams Jr.

• Roy Williams Jr. is currently Senior Sergeant Investigator in the District Attorney's office; he served as Dallas County Constable Precinct 4 for eight years; he received an undergraduate degree and a Master's degree from Argosy University

Abel Mulugheta

• Abel Mulugheta graduated from The University of Texas at Austin and earned a law degree from Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law. He was Chief of Staff for State Representative Rafael Anchia.

• His top campaign issues are Economic Development, Access to Affordable Healthcare, Voting Rights, Climate Change, Better Immigration System, Protect Educators, and Gun Violence

Jane Hope Hamilton

• Jane Hope Hamilton, a native of New Orleans, is a graduate of Lake Forest College; she has worked for U.S. Representative Martin Frost, was Chief of Staff for U. S. Representative Marc Veasey and Democratic State Director for the Joe Biden campaign.

• Her top campaign issues are Voting Rights, a Fair Census Process, Healthcare for all and Strong Public Schools

UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE, DISTRICT 32

Colin Allred

• Allred was first elected to Congress 2018. He graduated with a B.A. in History from Baylor University.
• His Campaign issues include Healthcare, Economic Growth, Education, Immigration, Gun Violence and Voting Right

UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE, DISTRICT 33

Carlos Quintanilla

• Long time immigration rights advocate in Dallas; platform issues he wants to address are Transportation, Economic Development, Healthcare, Reproduction Rights, Immigration, LGBTQ+ and Women Rights

• The activist and businessman attended Illinois Benedictine College, the University of Illinois and DePaul University

Mark Veasey

• Marc Veasey was elected United States Representative in 2012 for District 33, a district with neighborhoods in both Tarrant and Dallas counties; each month he hosts a "Congress on your Corner" event where constituents can meet him at a local grocery story or restaurant and works at a local business for a day each month as part of his "Marc Means Business" program

• The top issues he supports are Jobs and the Economy, Healthcare, Education, Immigration, Civil Rights and Equality, Defense, Transportation, Veterans and Seniors

Governor

Joy Diaz

• Former public radio journalist Joy Diaz says her top three campaign issues are the Border, Public Education and State Preparedness; other issues on her platform include Energy and the Environment, Criminal Justice, Infrastructure, Immigration, Transportation, Seniors and Veterans

• Native of Mexico City, Diaz is a graduate of Universidad de Cuautitlan Izcalli

Beto O'Rourke

• Former El Paso Congressman Beto O'Rourke's campaign platform include issues that expand Medicaid, create World Class Schools and Jobs; He says his focus is on what the people of Texas want and what is happening in the state

• He is a fourth generation Texan and has served as a member of Congress, a small business owner, and city councilman.

Rich Wakeland

• Campaign platform issues include reliable electric power, growing the high-tech industry, and protecting farmers and ranchers from drought

• Business owner, principal engineer at Wakeland Engineering, and veteran; earned Engineering and Law degrees from Texas A & M University, University of Texas at Austin and University of Texas at Austin School of Law

Michael Cooper

• An automobile executive who was born and raised in Beaumont, Texas; was President of the NAACP Beaumont chapter; his campaign platform issues for Governor includes Education, Criminal Justice Reform, Texas Economy, Climate Change, Human Rights, Texas/Mexico Border Security, Healthcare and Affordable Housing

Inocencio (Inno) Barrientez
• No Information Available

Lieutenant Governor

Carla Brailey

• Current Assistant Professor at Texas Southern University; former First Vice Chair of the Texas Democratic Party; campaign platform includes Accessible and Affordable Housing, Human Rights, Women Rights, Education

• Undergraduate degree from Texas State University and, earned a Masters and PhD degrees from Howard University

Michelle Beckley

• Current State Representative, District 65 Carrolton; authored numerous bills involving LGBTQ Equality, Public Health and Women's Reproductive Health

• Born and raised in Carrolton; graduate of Texas A&M University

Mike Collier

• Collier has over two decades of experience as an auditor and energy expert; In 2020, he was President Biden's Senior Advisor for the State of Texas; his campaign platform includes fixing the Power Grid, Healthcare, Income Equality, Climate Change, Prioritize Needs of Working families, Creating Good Paying Jobs and Benefits, Holding the Line on Property/Sales Tax Increases

• Born and raised in Georgetown, Texas; graduate of The University of Texas Austin

Attorney General

Joe Jaworski

- Jaworski is third-generation Texas Trial Attorney and former Mayor of Galveston; His term as mayor was defined by his rebuilding Galveston's storm devastated public housing; his campaign platform includes Expanding Medicaid, Creating a Civil Rights Division, Supporting Cities, Counties and School Districts in their local decision-making authority and Creating a Voter Access Division

Rochelle Mercedes Garza

- Garza says she became a lawyer for the people, fighting for children, immigrants and families as a civil rights lawyer; her top issues are Healthcare, Voting Rights, Reproductive Rights

- She graduated from Brown University and the University of Houston Law Center; she is active on county and state-wide boards including Jane's Due Process, the State Bar of Texas' Laws Relating to Immigration and Nationality Committee and the Cameron County Bar Association

Lee Merritt

- Merritt is an American Constitutional Attorney, national leader, and a champion for families whose rights and liberties are violated; his top priority issues are Voting Rights, Public Education, Women's Reproductive Rights, Accountability for Power Grid, Mental Health Crisis and Economic Empowerment

- His undergraduate degree is from Morehouse College, and he earned a law degree from Temple University James Beasley School of Law

Mike Fields

- Mike Fields served in the United States Army Reserves for eight years; he was Assistant District Attorney for Harris County and Assistant Attorney General for the Texas Attorney General's office.

- A native Texan, Fields earned his undergraduate degree from Texas State University and a law degree from St. Mary's School of Law

Comptroller of Public Accounts

Angel Luis Vega

• Vega has over 20 years experience in the private and non-profit sector including a former Texas Deputy Field Director and banker; his vision is to serve communities with integrity, compassion, commitment and urgency, make good decisions for Texans, manage the state's budget with efficiency and transparency and establish a vibrant economy and thriving jobs

• Vega earned an undergraduate degree from Inter-American University and a Master's degree from Webster University

Tim Mahoney

• Former Journalist Mahoney has practiced law since 1992; issues he supports are fairness for the average citizen and spend Texas Resources on issues important to Texans

• Graduate of The University of Texas At Austin and The South Texas College of Law At Houston

Janet Dudding

• Certified Public Accountant; issues Dudding will address include reduce methane emissions on state owned land, bring broadband and its revenue stream to rural Texas, expand mental and physical healthcare, oversee property tax appraisals and legalize/decriminalize adult-use recreational cannabis

• Earned an undergraduate degree from University of Southern Mississippi and a MBA from Millsaps College

Commissioner of the General Land Office

Michael Lange

• Lange is a champion of small businesses, support education and veterans

• Grew up in Texas; graduate of University of Texas Austin, advanced course at Rice University and New York Institute of Finance and advanced management program at INSEAD – Fontainebleau, France

Jinny Suh

• Community organizer and licensed attorney; supports fully funding Permanent School Fund, climate change and policy making based on science, facts and common sense

• Undergraduate degree from University of Southern California, Master's degree from University of Michigan and law degree from Columbia University

Jay Kleberg

• Kleberg believes the science behind climate change, support Veterans, providing funding for Texas school children and protecting the state's public and economic health

• Co-founder and managing director of Explore Ranches, film producer and former director Texas Parks and Wildlife Foundation; earned a MBA from The University of Texas

Sandragrace Martinez

• Licensed Professional Counselor; supports increasing General Land Office revenues to benefit Veterans, public education, and protect the environment on the Coastal Plain, the Rio Grande and other state land

• Undergraduate degree from the University of Texas San Antonio and Master's degree from St. Mary's University

Justice, Supreme Court, Place 3
Erin A. Nowell

Justice, Supreme Court, Place 5
Amanda Reichek

Justice, Supreme Court, Place 9
Julia Maldonado

Judge, Court of Criminal Appeals, Place 5
Dana Hoffman

Judge, Court of Criminal Appeals, Place 6
Robert Johnson

Member, State Board Education, District 11
"DC" Caldwell I

Luis Miguel Sifuentes
James Whitfield

Member, State Board Education, District 12
Roberto Velasco

Alex Cornwallis

Member, State Board Education, District 13
Aicha Davis

Member, State Board Education, District 14
Tracy Fisher

State Senator, District 2
Prince S Giadolor

• Giadolor is a business professional that worked as an aide for Senator Royce West.
• His main campaign issues include getting more hospitals in District 2, increasing broadband connectivity, being an advocate for small business, and criminal justice reform.

State Senator, District 12
Francine Ly
• Ly is an immigrant from Cambodia that grew up in Dallas. She is an activist in the Texas AAPI community and is a paralegal working as a court coordinator in Dallas County.

• Top campaign issues include voting rights, women's healthcare, access to education, and equal rights regardless of background.

Ferdi Mongo

State Senator, District 16
Nathan Johnson
• Johnson was elected as state senator in 2018. He graduated with a law degree from the University of Texas at Austin and currently works as a lawyer.

• His top campaign issues are public health, the state's economy, K-12 education, environmentalism, and electrical grid reliability.

State Senator, District 23
Royce West
• West was elected in 1992 as state senator. He graduated from the University of Texas at Arlington with a B.A. and M.A. in Sociology and a law degree from the University of Houston.

• His top campaign issues include public and higher education, healthcare, business and economic development, and public safety and criminal justice reform.

State Representative District 100
Daniel Davis Clayton
• Clayton is a former staffer of both Senator West and Representative Rose. He is a long-term resident of District 100 and graduated with a degree in advertising and writing from Texas A&M Commerce.

• His top campaign issues include healthcare, education, criminal justice, the environment, and jobs.

Marquis Hawkins
• Hawkins is a former Texas State Legislature staffer and currently works in Government Affairs for Southwest Airlines. He earned a bachelor's degree in political science from Morehouse College.
• His top campaign issues include lowering property taxes, expanding healthcare, public education, criminal justice, and voting rights.

Venton C Jones
• Jones is a native of District 100 and is the founder and CEO of Southern Black Policy and Advocacy Network. He earned a B.S. in Community Health from Texas A&M and a M.S. in Health Care Administration from UTA.
• His top campaign issues include healthcare, public education, jobs, and voting rights.

Sandra Crenshaw

State Representative District 102
Ana-Maria Ramos
• Ramos was elected as state representative in 2018. She graduated with a B.A. in Communications from UTA, a M.B.A. from TWU, and a J.D. from SMU.
• Her top campaign issues include education, healthcare, women's health, gun violence, the environment, and property tax relief.

State Representative District 103
Rafael M. Anchia
• Anchia was first elected as state representative in 2004. He graduated with a bachelor's degree from SMU and a J.D. from Tulane University.
• His top campaign issues include the environment, voting rights, education, public safety, healthcare, and human rights.

State Representative District 104
Jessica Gonzalez
• Gonzalez was first elected as state representative in 2018. She graduated with a B.A. in Criminology from UTA and a J.D. from Western Michigan University.
• Her top campaign issues include public education, child welfare, property taxes, criminal justice, local control, and jobs.

State Representative District 105
Terry Meza
• Meza was first elected as state representative in 2018. She graduated with a B.A. from UTA and a J.D. from Texas Wesleyan University.
• His top campaign issues include healthcare, public education, jobs, and celebrating diversity.

State Representative District 107
Victoria Neave Criado
• Neave Criado was first elected as state representative in 2016. She graduated with a B.A. from UTD and a J.D. from Texas Southern University.
• Her top campaign issues include COVID-19, sexual assault justice, education, equal pay, and veterans.

State Representative District 108
Elizabeth Ginsberg
• Ginsberg is an attorney in District 108 and is a graduate of University of Texas at Austin, earning both her B.B.A. and J.D. there.
• Her top campaign issues include public safety, public education, health care, climate change, and economic growth.

Freda Heald
• Heald is a preschool teacher that grew up in District 108. She is a graduate of University of Texas at Austin.
• Her top campaign issues include power grid reliability, public education and affordable health care.

State Representative District 109
Carl O. Sherman
• Sherman was first elected as state representative in 2018. He is a graduate of Northwood University.
• His top campaign issues include criminal justice reform and public safety.

State Representative District 110
Toni Rose
• Rose was first elected as state representative in 2012. She is a graduate of Paul Quinn College.
• Her top campaign issues include mental health reform, access to affordable healthcare, and criminal justice reform.

State Representative District 111
Yvonne Davis
• Davis was first elected as state representative in 1992. She graduated with her B.S. from the University of Houston.
• She serves on the Transportation and Judiciary & Civil Jurisprudence Committees.
Of

State Representative District 112
Elva Curl
• Curl is a former local government civil servant that received her political science bachelor's degree from Texas A&M and a M.P.A. from University of Texas at Dallas.
• Her top campaign issues include a reliable power grid, healthcare, pandemic response, fair economic opportunities and voting.

State Representative District 113
Rhetta Andrews Bowers
• Bowers was first elected as state representative in 2018. She attended Spelman College and Texas Southern University graduating with a degree in telecommunications.
• Her top campaign issues include healthcare, education, and jobs.

Uduak Nkanga
• Nkanga is a Dallas native and an activist in the community. She graduated with a political science and criminal justice degree from the University of North Texas.
• Her top campaign issues include healthcare, housing, education and racial justice.

State Representative District 114
John Bryant
• Bryant is a former Texas state representative serving for nine years from 1974-1983 and a former US Congressman from 1983-1997. He graduated with a B.A. and a J.D. from SMU.

Charlie Gearing
• Gearing is a lawyer and North Texas native that graduated from Duke University and Vanderbilt Law School.
• His top campaign issues include education, healthcare, power grid reliability, women's health, and LGBTQ+ issues.

Alexandra Guio
• Guio is a former assistant district attorney for Dallas County and graduated from UTA and SMU Law School.
• Her top campaign issues include education, reproductive justice, accessible healthcare, voting rights, LGBTQ+ issues, and climate change.

Chris Leal
• Leal is a public-school teacher and non-profit founder that graduated with a degree in finance and economics from Texas Tech.
• His top campaign issues include public education, infrastructure, healthcare, unions, criminal justice reform, voting rights, and LGBTQ+ issues.

Kendall Scudder
• Scudder is a small business owner who received his political science degree from Sam Houston State University.
• His top campaign issues include education, healthcare, reproductive rights, voting rights, infrastructure, the environment, and LGBTQ+ issues.

State Representative District 115
Julie Johnson
• Johnson was first elected as state representative in 2018. She attended UT Austin and the University of Houston School of Law.
• Her top campaign issues include education, government spending, criminal justice reform, women's health, wages, local control, and property taxes.

Justice, 5th Court of Appeals District, Place 4 - Democratic Maricela Moore

Justice, 5th Court of Appeals District, Place 7 - Democratic
Nancy Kennedy

District Judge, 44th Judicial District - Democratic
Veretta Frazier

District Judge, 68th Judicial District - Democratic
Martin Hoffman

District Judge, 101st Judicial District - Democratic
Staci Williams

District Judge, 116th Judicial District - Democratic
Tonya Parker

District Judge, 134th Judicial District - Democratic
Dale Tillery

District Judge, 160th Judicial District - Democratic
Aiesha Redmond

District Judge, 191st Judicial District - Democratic
Gena Slaughter

District Judge, 192nd Judicial District - Democratic
Maria Aceves
• Civil Litigation Attorney at Aceves Law, PLLC, which provides personal injury law and mediation services; Previously interned for a civil district court judge in Dallas County; Earned her JD from Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law.
• Currently a member of the Mac Taylor Inn of Court, the Dallas Bar Association, the Dallas Association of Young Lawyers, the Dallas Trial Lawyers Association, and the Dallas Hispanic Bar Association.

Tracie M. Shelby
• Lawyer at her firm, The Shelby Law Firm, PC; Practices in Bankruptcy, Business, Consumer, Family, Insurance, Real Estate, and Wills/Trusts/Probate law; Earned a degree at Texas Southern University, and her Master of Laws degree from Georgetown University.
• Previously served as: Associate Vice President in Merchant Banking in the Real Estate Group at The Walton Johnson Group; Assistant General Counsel at Sisters in Shape, Inc.; and General Counsel for Intimate Battles, Inc. Currently a member of the Dallas Bar Association, the J.L. Turner Legal Association, the John C. Ford American Inn of Court, and the Women League of Voters.

District Judge, 193rd Judicial District - Democratic
Bridgett Whitmore

District Judge, 194th Judicial District - Democratic
Ernest White

District Judge, 195th Judicial District - Democratic
Hector Garza

District Judge, 203rd Judicial District - Democratic
Raquel "Rocky" Jones

District Judge, 240th Judicial District - Democratic
Tammy Kemp (incumbent)
• Has served as the current District Judge since 2014, seeking reelection; Earned a bachelor's degree in Finance and her JD from the University of Oklahoma.
• Her priorities include streamlining court processes, accountability to the public, and fair and compassionate judgement.

Bree West
• Defense attorney serving the Dallas community with over 10 years of experience; Previously worked as a prosecutor with the Dallas County District Attorney's Office;
• Priorities in court include fighting judicial bias, fairness and compassion in the court, and reforming the criminal justice system; Core values include better education and mental health services, fighting the cash bond, victim protection, and diverse representation in the justice system.

District Judge, 254th Judicial District - Democratic
Kim Brown

District Judge, 255th Judicial District - Democratic
Vonda Bailey
• Managing partner of the Law Office of Vonda Bailey; Previously interned for the Honorable Judge Martin Hoffman at the 68th Judicial District Court; Earned a Bachelor's and Master's degree from the University of Texas at Arlington, and her law degree from Texas Southern University's Thurgood Marshall School of Law.

Kim Cooks
• Has served as the current District Judge since 2015, seeking reelection; Earned a BS in Biology/Medical Technology/Business Management from the University of Texas at Arlington, and her JD from Thurgood Marshall School of Law.
• Previously practiced family law at her firm, Law Office of Kim A. Cooks, P.L.L.C., and for Dallas County.

LaDistrict Judge, 256th Judicial District - Democratic
Sandre Streete
• Lawyer at her own firm, handles family law matters, legal career of over 20 years; Earned degrees from Wiley College and St. Mary's University School of Law.
• Also serves as an Amicus Attorney and a Guardian Ad Litem; Previously served as a Trustee for the DeSoto Independent School District from 2015 to 2018; Has served as an Assistant District Attorney in Dallas County, and been active in the PTA, Girl Scouts, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Dallas NAACP, Tri-Cities NAACP, Texas Coalition of Black Democrats, and the Democratic Party in Dallas County.

David Lopez
• Has served as the current District Judge since 2014, seeking reelection; Earned his undergraduate and law degrees from Texas Tech University.

District Judge, 265th Judicial District - Democratic
Jennifer Bennett

District Judge, 282nd Judicial District - Democratic
Teresa Jan Hawthorne
•Currently is a full-time judge, previously practiced criminal law; Earned her law degree from St. Mary's University.
• Previously served on the Texas 203rd District Court, left office in 2018.

Amber Givens-Davis (incumbent)
• Has served as the current judge since 2014, seeking reelection; Earned her undergraduate degree from Tuskegee University and her JD from Syracuse University College of Law.
• Previously worked as an assistant district attorney in the Dallas County District Attorney's office; Currently serves on the Advisory Board of the Oak Cliff Boys and Girls Club, the Dallas County Juvenile Board, and the Advisory Board of the Dallas Women Lawyers Association.

Andy Chatham
• Served as a judge in the Texas 282nd District Court from 2007-2014; Earned his J.D. from Oklahoma City University.
• Previously worked as an attorney in private practice from 1997-2006.

District Judge, 283rd Judicial District - Democratic
Lela Lawrence Mays

District Judge, 291st Judicial District - Democratic
Stephanie N. Mitchell Huff

District Judge, 292nd Judicial District - Democratic
Brandon Birmingham

District Judge, 298th Judicial District - Democratic
Emily Tobolowsky

District Judge, 363rd Judicial District - Democratic
Tracy Holmes

Criminal District Judge, Court No. 1 - Democratic
Tina Clinton

Criminal District Judge, Court No. 5 - Democratic
Carter Thompson

Criminal District Judge, Court No. 6 - Democratic
Nancy Mulder
• Has served as the current judge since 2014, seeking reelection; Earned her Bachelor's degree from Indiana University, and her JD from St. Mary's University of San Antonio.
• Currently serves as Co-Chair of the Step-Up Jail Pre-Trial Release Program, and Chair of the City of Dallas Cite & Release program for misdemeanor marijuana possession; Previously worked as a criminal defense attorney from 2007 to 2014 and served as an Assistant District Attorney for Dallas County from 1995 to 2007.

Alison Allen
• Currently a Dallas criminal defense attorney Board Certified in Criminal Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization with 15 years of experience.
• A former public defender with focus on felony defendants and mental health cases; Active in local politics, and advocate for voting rights.

Criminal District Judge, Court No. 7 - Democratic
Chika Anyiam

Family District Judge, 302nd Judicial District- Democratic
Sandra Jackson

Family District Judge, 303rd Judicial District- Democratic
Ladeitra Adkins

Family District Judge, 304th Judicial District- Democratic
Andrea Martin Lane

Family District Judge, 305th Judicial District- Democratic
Cheryl Lee Shannon

Family District Judge, 330th Judicial District- Democratic
Andrea Plumlee

Criminal District Attorney - Democratic
John Creuzot (incumbent)
• Serves as the current DA, seeking reelection; Earned his undergraduate degree from the University of North Texas, and his law degree from Southern Methodist University School of Law.
• Known for his work on drug courts, criminal justice reform, and evidence-based sentencing; Previous professional experience includes over 21 years as a Felony District Court Judge, seven years as a Dallas County Assistant District Attorney and Chief Felony Prosecutor, and private practice as a criminal defense lawyer.

Elizabeth Davis Frizell
• Currently an attorney at her firm, The Frizell Firm; Earned a BA in Political Science and Government, and her JD from Texas Southern University Thurgood Marshall School of Law.
• Previously served as Criminal District Court Judge in Dallas County, Court No. 7 from 2007-17; Has 20 years of judicial and 28 years of legal experience; Her priorities for the court include unification, transparency, and accessibility.

Dallas County Judge
Billy Clark
• Billy Clark grew up in Waco and graduated from the University of Texas at San Antonio. He received a Master in Public Administration Education at the University of Oklahoma and his law degree from University of North Texas Dallas. Clark is the Managing Attorney for The Law Firm PLLC.
• Top campaign issues: Bring a proactive leadership style, A fair and consistent criminal justice system, Overhaul the Emergency Management Plan

Clay Jenkins (Incumbent)
• Clay Jenkins is an Oak Cliff native that graduated from Baylor University and received his law degree from Baylor Law School. He has been county Judge since first being elected in 2010.
• Top Campaign Issues: Fight back COVID19, Ensure Children have access to quality education, Ensure children have access to quality health care

County Court at Law No. 1 Countywide - Dallas
LeDouglas Johnson
• Attorney practicing commercial litigation at Shamoun & Norman, LLP; earned undergraduate degree from Duke University and a law degree from Southern Methodist University School of Law
• Has also practiced in the areas of Intellectual Property Litigation, Toxic Tort Defence, Probate and Estate Planning; currently serves as the District 4 City Planning Commissioner for the City of Dallas

D'Metria Benson
• Four-term incumbent Judge, Dallas County Court at Law No. 1; graduate of Texas Christian University and The University of Texas at Austin
• One of longest-serving civil judges in Dallas County, seeking a fifth term; currently serves as Local Administrative County Judge of all the Statutory County Courts in Dallas County.

County Court at Law No. 2 Countywide - Dallas
Melissa J. Bellan
• Presiding Judge of County Court at Law No. 2 in Dallas County since 2018; earned undergraduate degree from Sweet Briar College and law degree from Southern Methodist University School of law, studied law at Oxford University
• Previously served as an Attorney and consultant providing contract litigation, motion, briefing and appearance services to lawyers

County Court at Law No. 3 Countywide – Dallas
Sally Montgomery
• Dallas County native; undergraduate degree from Southern Methodist University, Master's degree from University of North Texas and law degree from Baylor University School of Law
• Elected Dallas County Judge in 2003; member of the Texas Women Lawyers Association Advisory Board, former president of Texas Association of County Courts-at-law judges; received one of the highest disposition rates of 18 Dallas Civil Court Judges

Misti Mosteller
• Always interested in aspects of the law while growing up in the Oakcliff; earned an undergraduate degree from University of Texas at Arlington and a law degree from Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law; currently mediator and partner at DeHay & Elliston Law Firm
• Reasons for running for judge include wanting to make a difference in people's lives, being a part of the solution and allowing people to be heard; feel I would be a judge with a servant-leader's heart

County Court at Law No. 4 Countywide – Dallas
Dianne Kathryn Jones
• Tried and litigated thousands of cases in 32 years as a Trial lawyer; experienced Appellate Attorney; has served as Assistant United States Attorney, Northern District of Texas, Assistant Federal Public Defender, Northern District of Texas and Assistant District Attorney
• Graduate of University of Texas at Austin and Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law and Jacksonville Theological Seminary; her platform includes fairness and respect for all people because she says she understands the law and the spirit of the law

Paula M. Rosales
• Presiding judge of Dallas County Court at Law 4 since 2018; previously served as City of Dallas Municipal Court Judge and Community Court Judge; She has also served as Dallas County Assistant Distant Attorney advocating for victims of crime
• Reformed court procedures for defendants with mental health issues and spearheaded the Fresh Start Docket, a multiorganizational effort to fill-in identified gaps in our community's justice system; Graduate of Southern Methodist University and earned law degree from Texas Wesleyan School of Law (now Texas A&M School of Law)

County Criminal Court at Law No. 2 Countywide – Dallas
Julia Hayes
• Elected judge of Dallas County Criminal Court #2 in 2010; her highest priority on the bench is fair and impartial interpretation and application of the law, objectively review each case and treat people equally, and give the accused an opportunity to get to the root cause of behavior, pivot and utilize division and rehabilitation
• Earned a undergraduate degree from the University of California and earned a law degree from Syracuse University College of Law

County Criminal Court at Law No. 3 Countywide – Dallas
Audrey Faye Moorehead
• In 2018, first woman to be elected judge of Dallas County Criminal Court 3; She has 14 years of combined legal and judicial experience; she specialized in Criminal Defense, Domestic Relations, Wills and Trusts in her practice
• Named the 2021 Outstanding Jurist by the Dallas Women Lawyer's Association; A graduate of Huston-Tillotson University, she earned an MBA from Dallas Baptist University and a law degree from Texas A & M School of Law; she has also studied clinical gerontology at Baylor University

County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 Countywide – Dallas
Angel Mata
• Assistant District Attorney in the Dallas County District Attorney's office for 11 years
• Native of Pleasant Grove; first person in her family to attend college; received undergraduate degree from University of Texas at Arlington and earned a law degree from Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law

Dominique Torres Williams
• Experienced criminal attorney practicing in her own law firm, The Torres Law Firm PC; she is an active community advocate and most recently served five years on the DART Board of Directors as a City of Dallas appointee
• Native of Dallas; attended Eastfield Community College and earned an undergraduate degree from University of North Texas at Denton and earned a law degree from Texas A & M University School of Law

County Criminal Court at Law No. 5 Countywide – Dallas
Lisa Green
• Seven years presiding Dallas County Criminal Court #5 Judge; 12 years as a criminal defense attorney/public defender; believes it is important for young adult offenders to positively redirect their lives and she created the Green YARD Program which empowers young adults to reach their full potential as productive, responsible and caring citizens; one of four female African American judges who created the Pipeline to Possibilities program which changes the pipeline to prison narrative and empowers students to become leaders
• Earned her undergraduate degree, Masters degree and law degree from St. Mary's University; native of San Antonio

County Criminal Court at Law No. 6 Countywide – Dallas
Angela M. King
• Presiding Judge over Dallas County Criminal Court No. 6 since 2006; prior to serving on the bench, she served as Assistant County and District Attorney in Dallas and Ellis Counties; She has also maintained a private practice which focused on criminal defense; she believes and works diligently to ensure that every person is afforded competent representation and the criminal justice system treats everyone with fairness and respect

County Criminal Court at Law No. 7 Countywide – Dallas
Remeko Edwards
• Presiding Judge over Dallas County Criminal Court No. 7 since 2018; she said the people she serves are her top priority, she never backs down from tackling the toughest problems facing Dallas County families and she has served hundreds of Dallas's most vulnerable children and families; she understands how the criminal justice system can have a major impact on families
• Earned an undergraduate degree from University of Texas at Arlington and earned a law degree from Texas Southern University Thurgood Marshall School of Law

County Criminal Court at Law No. 8 Countywide – Dallas
Carmen White
• Currently Presiding Judge over Dallas County Criminal Court No. 8; She previously worked in the Dallas County District Attorney's office where she supervised the Child Abuse Division, the Sexual Assault Division, the Human Trafficking Division and the Mental Health Division; Prior to her position as an Administrative Prosecutor, Carmen was the Chief Prosecutor of the Child Abuse Division. Carmen prosecuted crimes against children for over 15 years.
• Earned an undergraduate degree with honors from Baylor University and earned a law degree from Harvard University School of Law

County Criminal Court at Law No. 9 Countywide – Dallas
Peggy Hoffman
• First elected in 2006 to Dallas County Criminal Court 9; nearly 30 years of legal and judicial experience and is Board Certified in Criminal Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization; She has also worked as a prosecutor in Dallas County and New York City
• Earned an undergraduate degree from the College of St. Benedict and earned a law degree from Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law

County Criminal Court of Appeals No. 1 – Dallas
Kristin Wade

• Presides over Dallas County Criminal Court of Appeals No. 1; an award-winning judge who oversees an important mental health diversion program that has helped over a thousand people get treatment.

• Earned an undergraduate degree from Trinity University and earned a law degree from Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law

County Criminal Court of Appeals No. 2 – Dallas
Pamela Luther

• Presides over Dallas County Criminal Court of Appeals No. 2, Dallas' largest County Criminal Court since 2019; with over 4,000 criminal cases pending when she took over, she addressed the problem through systematic research of court records, locating the defendants, working with the DA's office and holding hearings to justify the lengthy delay

• Earned undergraduate degree from University of Texas at Austin and earned a law degree from Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law

Probate Court No. 1
Julia Malveaux

• Julia Malveaux earned her law degree from Texas Southern University. She practices family & juvenile law.

• Top campaign issues: None stated

Probate Court No. 2
LaNasha Houze

• Houze graduated from Howard University. She is a sole practitioner specializing in Family, Wills-trust-Probate, Elder Law & Juvenile.

Ingrid Michelle Warren

• Warren graduated from Judge Barefoot sanders Law Magnet High School in Dallas and also from Texas A&M university. She earned her law degree from The University of Texas at Austin. She has been Probate Court Judge since 2015.

Probate Court No. 3
Margaret Jones-Johnson

• Jones-Johnson graduated from University of Arkansas at Little Rock and earned her law degree from Texas Wesleyan University School of Law, now Texas A&M. She has been Probate Court Judge since 2014.

Dallas County District Clerk, Countywide – Democratic
Ayme Thompson Hollins

• Retired HR professional who has served as HR Manager at the Dallas County District Clerk's Office, Labor Advocate and Human Resources officer at Transport Workers Union Local 555, and Supervisor and Resource Management Leader at Verizon Communications; Earned a BS in Kinesiology with an emphasis on Sports Management from Texas A&M, and an MBA in Human Resources from the University of Dallas.
• Currently serves as an Executive Board Chair for the Metropolitan Dallas YMCA on the T. Boone Pickens YMCA Board.

Felicia Pitre (incumbent)
• Dallas County District Clerk since 2015, seeking re-election; Attended Northwood University for undergrad, received her MBA from the University of Phoenix.
• Her focus as District Clerk has been protecting personal information of litigants, especially child victims, ensuring safety for victims of domestic violence, and improving case management systems
• Experience includes 30 years of non-profit and public service management, and 8 years of management of court support operations.

Dallas County Clerk
Marcus Turner
• Marcus Turner Jr graduated from Jarvis Christian College. He also has a Master's
• Top Campaign Issues: Better Customer Service, Access to Technology

Ann Cruz
• Ann Cruz graduated from Justin F Kimball High School in Dallas. She is currently the Court Coordinator for County Court of Criminal Appeals No. 2.
• Top Campaign Issue: Strong Work Ethic, Consistency to the Office, Better Customer Experience

John F. Warren
• John F Warren graduated from Southern University in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. He has served as Dallas County Clerk since 2007.
• Top Campaign Issues: Good steward of County resources; and Implement technology to create efficiencies.

Dallas County Treasurer, Countywide – Democratic
Pauline Medrano (incumbent)

• Dallas County Treasurer since 2015, seeking re-election; Former Dallas City Council member (2005-2013), Deputy Mayor Pro Tem (2009-2011), and Mayor Pro Tem (2011-2013); holds a BA in Political Science from the University of Texas at Arlington.
• Currently serves as a member of the Oak Cliff Lions Club, Esperanza "Hope" Medrano elementary school Board of Friends, Board of Directors for the Dallas Children's Theater, and NALEO Educational Fund Board.

County Commissioner Precinct 2
Andrew Sommerman
• Sommerman graduated from University of Texas at Arlington and earned his law degree from South Texas College of Law. Andrew serves as County Judge Jenkins attorney suing Governor Abbott regarding COVID19. He is a partner in Sommerman, McCaffity, Quesada & Geisler, LLP who specializes in personal injury, medical malpractice, wrongful death, product liability & commercial liability.
• Top campaign issues: COVID19 pandemic, Manage Public Healthcare System, Ensure intelligent & efficient use of taxpayer dollars.

Dorotha Michelle Ocker
• Ocker graduated from Stanford Law of School. She is a sole practitioner who specializing in consumer, labor-employment, real estate, wills-trust-probate & elder law.
• Top Campaign Issue: Advocate Democratic Values

Philip Kingston
• Philip Kingston graduated from Trinity University and earned a law degree from Baylor University. He is a former Dallas City Councilman who district represented a portion of the County Commissioner Precinct 2. Kingston currently works at Stanton LLP, specializing in real estate, dispute resolution, employment law & commercial litigation.

Tom Ervin
• Ervin earned his Master's of Business Administration from SMU. He is a Precinct Chair and currently operates a small business that provides divestiture and merger advisory services to the energy industry.
• Top Campaign Issues: Require State of Texas to fund 50% of Public Education; Medicare expansion & restoration of fully funded Planned Parenthood, Equal access to safe & legal abortion, LGTBQ rights, A path to citizenship for DACA recipients; F. Increase minimum wage

County Commissioner Precinct 4
Dr. Elba Garcia

• Dr. Garcia was born and raised in Mexico City earning her Doctorate in Odontology from the Universidad Autonoma Metropolitan. She also earned Degree at Baylor College of Dentistry and 2nd Doctorate in Dental Surgery. Dr. Garcia currently operates a dental office on Jefferson Blvd in Downtown Oak Cliff and has served as County Commissioner since 2010.
• Top Campaign Issues: Transparency of tax dollars; Expansion of MWBE certification, Ban the Box hiring policies, Homes for Hounds Program

Dallas County Justice of the Peace – Democratic
Justice of the Peace, Precinct 1, Place 1 – Dallas

Thomas G. Jones
• Has served as the current Justice since 1991, seeking re-election; Earned an undergraduate degree from Dallas Baptist University, a Masters in Urban Studies from the University of Texas at Arlington, and his law degree from Texas Wesleyan University School of Law.
• Previously served in the Office of Civil Rights in the U.S. Department of Education, as well as in the Wilmer-Hutchins School District, and on several city and county boards including the DISD Board of Education, and the Adult/Child Learning Center board.

Justice of the Peace, Precinct 1, Place 2 – Dallas
Valencia Nash (incumbent)
• Has served as the current Justice since 2007, seeking re-election; Earned a BS in Political Science from the University of Houston, and her law degree from the Texas Southern University Thurgood Marshall School of Law.
• Has practiced in environmental law and justice, family law, juvenile law, and construction law and litigation; Has served on the Juvenile Justice, Shared Solutions, Courthouse Security, and Mental Illness Committees on the Texas Judicial Council; She is a member of the NAACP, and Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Dallas Alumnae Chapter.

Justice of the Peace, Precinct 2, Place 1 – Dallas

Atalia Garcia Williams
• As a first-generation college student, she earned a Bachelor's of Business Administration in Management from Baker College, a J.D. from Texas Wesleyan University School of Law, and an MBA from Texas Woman's University.
• Attorney at Garcia Legal Group focusing on family based-immigration law, personal injury cases, and family and real estate law; Member of the Texas State Bar; a licensed Texas Real Estate Salesperson.

Christina Sowells
• Currently serves as a Senior Litigation Paralegal and runs her own business as a certified civil mediator, wedding officiant, notary public, and certified notary signing agent; Has 18 years of experience in legal areas including business, immigration, corporate and start-ups, personal injury, and insurance defense.
• Dedicated to public service through volunteer work including organizing campaigns to feed the homeless, providing masks to the public during the pandemic, and serving as a representative of the nonprofit organization Anti-Bullying Teen Rough-Ing.

Margaret O'Brien (incumbent)
• Has served as the current Justice since 2018, seeking re-election; Earned a BS in Chemistry from Stephen F. Austin University, an MS in Environmental Science from the University of Texas Health Science Center, and a Graduate Certificate in Dispute Resolution/Mediation from Southern Methodist University.
• Worked as an Industrial Hygienist for Amoco, Motorola and Texas Instruments for almost 10 years, and founded a small business in 2004; She is also a licensed real estate broker and a Certified Commercial Investment Member.

Henry Brown
• Currently an employee of Dallas Area Rapid Transit (DART) for over 20 years; Earned an Associate's in General Studies and a BS in Business Administration/Minor Psychology from Liberty University, a Certificate of Pastoral Care from Howard Thurman School of Theology and holds Certifications in Conflict Resolution and Effective Communication.
• Before DART, he worked in the Dallas County Administrative Service Department, and the Henry Wade Juvenile Detention Center; Campaign issues include decreasing evictions, addressing absences in schools, fair case assessment, and public access to a legal library/resource center in the courthouse.

Justice of the Peace, Precinct 2, Place 2 – Dallas
KaTina Whitfield (incumbent)
• Has served as the current Justice since 2018, seeking re-election; Earned her CRP from the National Federation of Paralegals Association (NFPA) and was designated as an Accredited Legal Professional by the National Association for Legal Professionals in 2018.
• Has 20 years of legal experience; Was the NFPA 2017 Paralegal of the Year; Previously served as the NFPA's Ethics as Professional Responsibilities Coordinator, and as Chairwoman for Dallas Area Paralegal Association Pro-Bono/Community Service Committee (2018).

Denise Brennan
• An East Dallas native, she is proud of her Mexican-American heritage tracing back from Texas to Nueva Leon, Mexico; Worked two jobs while attending college.
• Has worked as a Product Development Manager for over 12 years, where she enjoys working in a diverse team environment, providing outstanding customer service, and leading her team by listening well and making informed decisions.

Denise Upchurch
• An Ordained Elder and Community Activist, she has served as a board member for various youth, education, and community-oriented organizations; Served the Mesquite NAACP from 1994-2008 in various President and Vice President positions; Served as the NAACP National Education Chairperson on the Scholarship Committee from 2005-2011.
• Other boards served include the Mesquite Chamber of Commerce, Mon-The Gazette Newspaper, Mesquite Citizens Police Academy Alumni, Historical Mesquite, and West Dallas Youth Center

Justice of the Peace, Precinct 3, Place 1 – Dallas
Adam M. Swartz
• Practicing attorney in consumer and criminal law; Principal owner of Swartz│Davidson Law, PLLC; Earned a BA in Communication Studies with Emphasis in Rhetoric and Political Communication from the University of Kansas, and a JD from Texas A&M University School of Law.
• Currently serves on the boards of IMPRINT Theaterworks and Awwdoptable, Inc., and is a member of Dallas Association of Young Lawyers, Texas Young Lawyers Association, and the Anti-Defamation League; Previous experience includes three years as Managing Partner of one of the Frisco Chamber of Commerce's Small Business of the Year finalists, three years at Upstart Productions as a co-founder, grant writer, and Secretary of the Board, and one year as a stay-at-home Dad before attending law school.

Justice of the Peace, Precinct 3, Place 2 – Dallas
Chris Suprun

• Currently serves as a street paramedic, certified by the Texas Department of State Health Services; He is Adjunct Faculty for EMS at Dallas College, and previously taught Emergency Medicine courses at The George Washington University.

• Has over 20 years of experience as a firefighter/paramedic, including responding to 9/11; Has been instrumental in development and implementation of public safety policy; Has served in communication positions for The White House, a US Senator, and NBC

Justice of the Peace, Precinct 4, Place 1 – Dallas
Mike Jones (incumbent)

• Has served as the current Justice since 2018, seeking re-election; Holds associate degrees in Real Estate and Criminal Justice from Cedar Valley College, a Bachelor's in Applied Arts and Sciences from the University of North Texas, and a Master's in management and Public Administration from the University of Phoenix.

• Currently serves as Board Director of Metrotex Commercial Data Exchange, Board Member of Texas Association of Realtors, Housing Opportunity Foundation, Inc., and is a member of the NAACP Tri-Cities Branch and Stonewall Democrats of Dallas; Previously served in several management positions for the City of Dallas, Director for City and Mayor Pro Tem of Glenn Heights (2013-15), and Criminal Justice Chair for NAACP's Grand Prairie branch (2013-16).

Lasonja Flowers-Ivory

• Educational consultant at and founder/CEO of Ivory Educational Consulting, LLC; Has over 20 years of experience in education, grant writing, and Title IV investigations; Earned a BA in Child Development, a Master's Degree in Education, and a Doctorate in Educational Leadership and Policy Studies from California State University.

• Currently serves as Duncanville ISD School Board Trustee, and member of the City of DeSoto Arts Commission; Previously served on policy review and evaluation teams for school districts and local government; She is also an author, publisher, researcher, and motivational speaker.

Justice of the Peace, Precinct 4, Place 2 – Dallas
Sasha Moreno (incumbent)
• Has served as the current Justice since 2018, seeking re-election; Earned a BA in Journalism and Political Science from the University of North Texas, and a Master's in Dispute Resolution and a JD from Pepperdine School of Law
• Currently presides over evictions, small claims, debt claims, traffic and other legal matters; Has focused on expanding community access to court services, virtual and other communication, and student internships at the court; Has practiced law in immigration, foreclosure defense, and corporate transactions.

Dareia Jacobs
• TV & radio personality, author and educator with over 10 years of experience; Earned a BA in Mass Communications from Lane College, and a commendation from Congresswoman Eddie Bernince Johnson for her work in radio broadcasting.
• Her focus is on a community approach to expand access to housing support services, reduce absences in schools, and build trust with the justice system; Married to Pastor Bishop Eli Jacobs of Resurrection Body of Christ Church; Member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.

Justice of the Peace, Precinct 5, Place 1 – Dallas
Johnny C. Gomez
• Security Officer; Sought Election as Dallas County Tax Assessor in 2019.

Sara Martinez (incumbent)
• Has served as the current Justice since 2014, seeking re-election; Earned a Bachelor's from Loyola Marymount University, and a JD at the University of Southern California School of Law.
• During her term she has served on the Dallas County Bail Bond Board, as a member of the City of Dallas Judicial Nominating Commission; Focus is on transparency, efficiency, and accessibility of the court; Previously served in the Dallas County Public Defender's Office; Has been recognized for her leadership by the Greater Dallas Hispanic Chamber of Commerce and the LULAC Rainbow Council.

Justice of the Peace, Precinct 5, Place 2 – Dallas
Juan Jasso (incumbent)
• Has served as the current Justice since 1995, seeking re-election; Has over 20 years of experience on the bench; Earned a BA in Government from Pan American University, and a JD from the University of Houston School of Law.
• In 2017 he received awards including Public Servant of the Year from the Oak Cliff Chamber of Commerce, and the West Dallas Minister Alliance Justice Award.

Desmond "Dez" Cooks
• Serves as an Associate Municipal Judge for the City of Dallas and is a lawyer at/founder of Cooks Law Firm, PLLC; Earned a BS in Criminal Justice from the University of North Texas, a JD from Baylor University School of Law; Awarded a Navy Achievement Medal from the U.S. Navy as an Operation Specialist, Second Class Petty Officer.
• Current practice includes Personal Injury, Criminal Defense of Misdemeanors and Felonies, Business Law, and Family Law matters; Previously worked for Scheef & Stone, LLP; Has served on the Board of Directors of Gateway Charter Academy, and as an Associate in Patrick Higginbotham Inn of Courts (2012-13).

Kaletha Dotson
• Currently a paralegal and owner of KLD Paralegal Services; Earned an Associate's in Mediation/Arbitration-CMDR from El Centro College; Currently attends Harvard University Law School to earn her JD (2015-2023).
• Campaign issues include reducing evictions and homelessness and helping working families; Previously worked for Nationstar Mortgage, and Linebarger Goggan Blair & Sampson, LLP; Member of HBCU Connect.

Dallas County Constable, Precinct 1
Tracey Guilley
•Tracey Guilley graduated from the University of North Texas. Tracey worked for over 20 years as a Deputy Constable prior to election as the first Female African America to serve as a Dallas County Constable.
• She has served as County Constable, Precinct 1 since 2016.

M. Yolanda Freeman

Dallas County Constable, Precinct 2
Deanna Hammond
• Hammond graduated from DeVry University and a Masters of Arts for Dallas Baptist University. She is currently pursuing a PhD in Psychology at Grand Canyon University.
• Top Campaign Issue: Place the Community "Back In" Policing, Engage with Community Leaders

Bill Gipson II
• Gipson graduated from Stephen F Austin University and also earned a Master's in Public Administration from Texas Southern University. Bill has served as Constable since 2018.
• Top Campaign issue: To build trust between the community and law enforcement, Hold himself accountable to the public

Dallas County Constable, Precinct 3
Henry Curry
• Curry holds a Master Peace Officer certification and graduate of Texas Constable Leadership College. He has over 25 years of service at Dallas Count, most recently as Assistant   Chief at Dallas Constable Precinct 2.
• Top Campaign Issue: Earn Public Trust, Listen to residents

Demondre Montgomery
• Demondre Montgomery graduated from Texas A&M Commerce. Demondre is lifetime resident of Dallas County, graduating from Cedar Hill High School. He is also the owner and CEO of State Protective Services.
• Top Campaign Issues: New perspective and experience

Dallas County Constable, Precinct 4
Ed Wright
• Wright graduated from South Oak Cliff High School and has over 33 years of Law Enforcement in Dallas County. Prior to election of Constable in 2018 he served in the Dallas County Sheriff's Department.
• Top Campaign Issues: Continue Community contact with Elected Officials and Organizations

Dallas County Constable, Precinct
Sophia Graham

• Graham graduated from Paul Quinn College. She worked for DISD as a Sargent for 13 years and is currently a Policy Officer for the Cedar Hill ISD.

Michael Orozco
• Orozco graduated from University of Phoenix and Civil Process Proficiency Certification from Texas Commission on Law Enforcement. He also attended Woodrow Wilson High School. Michael has continued a family tradition, his father served as a Deputy Constable in Dallas County for over 40 years. Orozco has served as Constable since 2018.

County Chair
Kristy Noble

Late Additions:

Susan Hayes
Ed Ireson
Luke Warford